VOLUME XXIII

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 1920.

Guy C. Mercer Was Decorated for Bravery.

The name of Guy C. Mercer appeared in the list published in Wednesday's daily papers, as having been awarded the Croix de Guerre for heroic and valuable service to the French government and for brave conduct in time of stress. Guy is the son of J. H. Mercer, for many years railroad agent here. He was employed at El Paso at the time of his enlistment, but as he was born and reared here, he is regarded here as a Mesquite boy, and his friends are proud of the honor he has won.

He and others were decorated with the medals on March 20, with impressive ceremonies.—Texas Paper.

The above gallant soldier is a grandson of Mr. Andrew Mercer, who removed from Milltown to Texas many years ago. He is also a first cousin of Mr. N. M. Tutt, this place, and Mr. J. R. Tutt, Milltown.

You must pay your last year account, so I can pay mine. You must not ask for another credit unless you have paid your 1919 account.

W. I. Ingram.

At Rest.

On the 11th day of March, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonza Perkins, near Knifley, Adair Co., and claimed their beloved boy, named Claud, and carried him away, to be one of the little angels in Heaven. He was 6 years, 2 months old. Was born Dec. 20, 1913. Leaves father, mother, six brothers and 8 sisters. Weep not dear father, mother, brothers and sisters for our dear darling is at rest. He has one brother dead. Died year ago last September.

A precious one from us is gone.

A voice we loved is still.

A vacant place is in our home, Which never can be filled.

We will meet him some day.

His dear cousin,

Mrs. R. J. Pike.

It is claimed that the most direct route for the proposed pike from Cheatham's bridge to the residence of Ben Thomas is up Butler's Branch about one quarter of a mile, then turn due east to Oliver Peiley's, then north to the end of A. B. Corbin's farm, known as the Williams' farm, then on via S. C. Hood's farm and that of Sallie Butler. Then make a north-east turn to Ben Thomas' place. This is the shortest and cheapest route. From the starting point to the Thomas farm is only three miles. All the parties living on this route have given the right of way but two, and it is likely that they will come across. As soon as the right of way has been fully secured, all parties and the public generally who will be benefited by this piece of road should give liberally for its construction. There may be others who think differently, and if so, there will be a fight for the route.

Mrs. Porter Barger, who lives near Joppa, met with a very painful accident a few days ago. She was climbing over a fence, near her residence, when a rail broke throwing her to the ground. Her left arm was badly sprained, causing much suffering.

A heavy rain fell here last Thursday night, and Friday morning Russell's creek was on a high, the water lacking only a few feet of reaching the bridge. Pettisfork was also higher than it had been for several months.

W. E. Keltner sold nine hoghead of tobacco in Louisville last week at from $10.00 to $58.00 per hundred. During the season Mr. Keltner sold about 100,000 pounds.

Phelps Bros. had a carload of hogs on the Louisville market last week and will ship another carload this week. They paid from 12 to 13 cents.

If subscribers will look on the label printed on their paper they will see the time for which they have paid.

A Suggestion.

The number of banks that have been robbed in Kentucky in the last four months, is sufficient warning to all bank officials in the smaller towns. The bank at Woodburn, Warren county, was robbed last Monday night of nearly four thousand dollars in Liberty bonds, thrift stamps and cash. It is believed that four men did the job, and it is also believed that they are the same men who have robbed four or five other banks in Kentucky in the last four months. A night watchman in the smaller towns would not be a bad idea. Robberies are generally committed after the turn of the night, and it would not be necessary for a watchman to go on duty until after midnight. The services of a good man would cost a little money, but by employing him a great deal of money and securities might be saved.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that A. O. Young and others will, on Monday the 5th day of April, 1920, it being the first day of the regular term of the Adair County Court, file in said court, a petition asking the opening and establishment of a public road in Adair County, Kentucky, which road is more particularly described as follows: Beginning at a point in the Columbia and Jamestown road, near Zion Church, running thence in an Easternly direction across the lands of Mrs. Mollie Willis, H. G. and Dora Young, R. O. Cabbell, Lewis Young, Robert Bailey, A. O. Young, Ben Hutchinson, J. W. Gabbert, R. A. Montgomery, J. B. Montgomery, R. B. Reeves, Josh Montgomery, Howard Leach and Green Reynolds to a point in the Columbia and Russell Springs road, near New Clear Spring School house, a distance of about three miles, and will on said day ask said court to appoint viewers and to enter and make such orders and judgment as is necessary for the opening and establishing said road as a public road.

Given under our hands this 10th day of March, 1920

Eclipses During the Year.

Here is a little meteorological information of the year 1920 that may be of interest. It indicates four eclipses will be seen during the year. Two will be of the sun and two of the moon. The first will be a total eclipse of the moon on May second; the next will be a partial eclipse of the sun, May 17; the next a total eclipse of the moon, October 27, and the last a partial eclipse of the sun on November 10. The information is from the government weather bureau.

Mr. Albert Rowe, whose death we reported in our last issue, was a nephew of Eld. Z. T. Williams, this place. In the notice of his death, we made a mistake in stating that his wife was living. She died about two years ago. He was also a brother-in-law of W. T. McFarland.

T. F. Corbin, representing D. E. Phelps, bought sixty red hogs, last Tuesday, from different parties, at $1.50 of the Louisville market. He also bought seven head of cattle at 8 cents.

Mr. Champ Butler had on exhibition here last Thursday afternoon a bald Eagle that was killed on his farm the day before by J. C. Hood. It measured 7 feet and 4 inches from tip to tip. It weighed 14 pounds.

Easter comes the first Sunday in April. We take it that an appropriate program will be rendered at some of the churches.

Married.

The Rev. J. R. Rice and Mrs. Malissa Denton, both of this county, were united in matrimony on Thursday, March 11th, at 4:30 p. m.

The ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. Denton. In the presence of only a few friends and relatives, the Rev. I. M. Grimsley officiating.

Immediately after the ceremony all repaired to the dining-room, where a sumptuous supper awaited them.

The groom is a prosperous farmer of the Green River section and is well-known all over the county, having been a minister for a number of years.

Mrs. Denton is a very deserving and highly respected lady of the same neighborhood.

Their many friends unite in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life together. May the roses that strew their pathway be many and the thorns few.

We are very grateful to the people of Adair and adjoining counties for the substantial support they are giving this paper. For the last five months its business has been greater than at any time since The News was established, in the same number of months, and the paper was started nearly 23 years ago. For twenty years it was owned and managed by Mr. C. S. Harris, and under his direction it was put upon a firm foundation, and under its present management there have been but little deviation from the conduct laid down by Mr. Harris. Our object is not to offend; but to please the public by giving them a newsy paper weekly. Again we thank you.

March 9, 1920.

Editor The News:—

Some nights ago I enjoyed the great pleasure of being at my boyhood home in old Virginia, mixing and mingling with many of my schoolmates and being with and being with my brother, who lives in that vicinity. I awoke. It was only a dream, a disappointment, but a joy, a pleasure that still lingers in my mind, even though it came in midnight sleep. All along through life I have had dreams. Sometimes more than sometimes and sometimes not so often as sometimes, but you can't imagine the pleasure of my many dreams that have placed me with so many of my old friends, who still reside in the Old Kentucky Home. A few nights ago I had the pleasure of introducing to a number of my friends here two of my friends from Burton Ridge, M. O. Stevenson and Simon Murrell. How I introduced them and what I said is not now stated, but it was a great pleasure to me to have them with us and to present them within my circle here. I awoke. It was only a dream, and I wondered why I should be deceived and deprived of such a visit, or why that pleasant, happy moment should have ever entered my mind even in the mysterious vision we call dream, for knowing them I am bound to know that they have never had a desire to leave their native heath and are happy and content with their good homes and surroundings. It is strange indeed, but dreams are shrouded in mystery and live within the realm of sleep. I have dreamed of many friends and acquaintances, who remain in the old home land from the day laborer up to Bank Presidents. I have lived over the past from sticking Burley plants to publishing The News. I have appeared before the Fiscal Court of your county, on pressing invitations, and been received with enthusiastic support in my efforts to stir up public spirit and to obtain public improvements. A short time ago I was back in Adair, and to see such great improvements in every line of industry and especially the roads made me feel as I had never felt before. I was driven over the county by G. M. Stevenson and others who were elated over the many miles of fine road built since my departure nearly one year ago. I was invited to return and enjoy them, but I declined on the account of the high cost of transportation and my pleasant surroundings in the land of Real Dixie. G. M. and I made a trip to the Casey county line over one of the best constructed roads in the state, and from start to finish clipped it off at 35 miles per hour. As we passed over Dug Hill I could not help thinking what such a road was worth and what a wonderful change had come over the people in that part of the county. It was a revelation too great to be fully realized in so short a time, but I looked, I wandered and patted my friend on the back. The building of this road was a cherished ambition of mine and I had spent many, many days and hours in trying to get it built and then on to a connection with the Glasgow pike and other points, but I left your county believing that I would never see it realized. On our return to Columbia, Squire H. A. Walker took me to Russell Springs in 27 minutes without a jar. It was fast and easy going—a great piece of road and I don't blame the people from feeling like they have accomplished something of great worth and staying by its promoters. The country already shows the marks of improvements and indications of enterprise are positive. We came back via Montpelier and that section showed that it had joined in the great awakening and had placed the road where it should be, regardless of pecuniary loss to some of its land owners. I felt as I have rarely ever felt over this evidence of regeneration—public spirit working wonders and the mantle of prosperity covering every industrious citizen. Mr. J. P. Beard took me in charge after arriving in Columbia. I am not certain, but the time to Gradyville was either 18 or 20 minutes actual running. We met my old friend, W. M. Wilmore, near Union Church. He stopped his big car, gave me a hearty hand shake and asked me about the highways of my part of the Sunny South. I replied that we had many miles of fine hard roads radiating in every direction from our county seat and that we were still building more as fast as we could get the stones shipped in. He touched a button, pressed a little pedal and landed in Columbia in nine minutes. I shook hands with several of my friends at Gradyville, and they all had that smile that is foreign to bad roads, of discontent or uncertainty. A few minutes later we were in Milltown, a town and community that has always showed more desire for better things than they ever got, but now the people there are enjoying to the fullest degree of pride their good road outlets to Keltner, Gradyville, Greensburg and Columbia. I rejoiced with them for a short time, when we hit the trail for Columbia, arriving there in 23 minutes from the time we left Milltown. It was an elegant piece of road. After these trips I could not keep from thinking what great things may be accomplished when the people really get in earnest. In fact, I thought of the initial efforts years ago to get roads in your county. I thought of the severe criticisms a few of us received and no one more than myself, when every proposition was unpopular that went in the direction of good roads; of the times when so many were willing to accept and keep what was inherited and why it was that I had been so misunderstood in my efforts and purposes as well as a few others. When I left I did not think I would ever see so many miles of good roads in Adair county. It was a revelation to me and swept away every vestige of regret of the lack of public enterprise in my old home county. It was evidence of enterprise I did not think existed. I rejoiced with you all and commended you for doing what should have been done long ago and what other people have been doing under less favored conditions. That was the greatest trip of my life and I got more pleasure out of it than any trip ever made. I awoke. It was only a dream. I am sorry. Only a dream. Will it ever come true? What are dreams? Who escapes their sometimes unpleasanties? Dreams—the wandering angels of midnight thought—the silent messengers who invade slumber's apartments—the echoes of things that were, that may be or that may never enter wakeful mind. Inexplicable, indefinable, their mission beyond comprehension, their mysteries sometimes find lodgment in our minds and sometimes fade as the evening twilight, but they come and go and we know not from whence they are. Their historical power recite the incidences of the past while their prophetic visions bring the future to the present. By their seductive charms, by their swiftness of transport we are carried from the moments that be to the distant past and from the mis- of present environments to the great beyond. Sometimes annoying, but in the main, angels of mercy reviewing the pleasures of the long ago and leading through mystic aisles that mortal man may never enter. We dream! we think; we live; we are moving on, but "Life is more than a dream."

C. S. Harris.

The Best Insurance Against Influenza.

Prominent Educator Believes That Vapomentha is a Sure Preventive.

Dr. R. M. Brame, discoverer of Brame's Vapomentha Salve, has a letter from C. C. Wright, Superintendent of the Wilkes County, N. C. Public Schools, in which he says: "We have used Brame's Vapomentha Salve for nearly all the ills for which it is prescribed and have always secured satisfactory results. If used in time it has never failed to break up colds, usually the forerunner of Grippe, Influenza and Pneumonia. I speak from personal observation. I believe if this preparation is used in time it will prevent the development of pneumonia in every instance, if used according to directions."

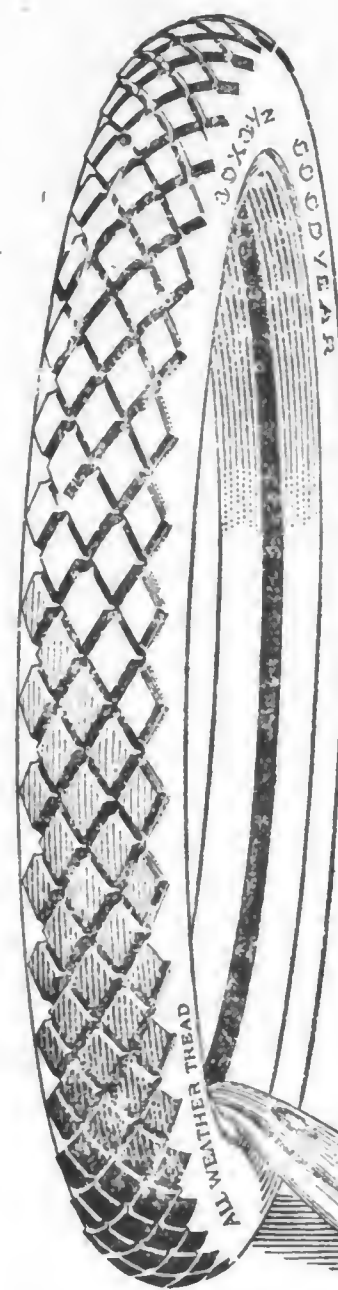

The strong statements are fully justified by the remarkable recoveries that follow. Brame's Vapomentha Salve is applied freely over the chest and throat and inserted in each nostril. Brame's Vapomentha Salve penetrates the pores of the skin, relieving congestion, at the same time healing vapors arise and are breathed through the mouth and nose, loosening the phlegm and causing the patient to breathe freely. Its absolute reliability is evidenced by dozens of unsolicited testimonials. Brame's Vapomentha Salve will relieve pneumonia, influenza, grippe, pleurisy, bronchitis, whooping cough, catarrh, asthma, tonsillitis, hay fever and inflammation of the skin.

Lick Not at All.

Some folks don't lick postage stamps because they taste like Hades and others because they have heard that there's germs on 'em. But most people in their haste give them a lick and let it go at that.

The Medical Times put two investigators at work on the subject some months ago and their report is just out. They obtained stamps from fifty different places, mostly business offices. Some were kept exposed on desks, some in boxes in desk drawers, and some were carefully locked in cash registers. No matter; the degree of exposure didn't count. In every case the gum on the backs contained deadly disease germs.

The investigators found the bacilli of typhoid, diphtheria, skin diseases and blood diseases. Not a few, but many on the back of every stamp. In twenty cases the colonies of germs were too numerous to count.

Of course, as the Medical Times points out, if these germs were virulent to everybody, great epidemics would result, so widespread is the practice of licking stamps. Nevertheless, it is probable that many people have been stricken in this way who were physically in a condition to be receptive to the disease bacilli. Few know whether they are in such condition, hence it is just as well to moisten the stamps some other way than with the well-known tongue.—Louisville Herald.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadersville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak. I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught." Seventy years of successful use has made Thedford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member, of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose. ## ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce RALPH GILBERT, of Shelby county, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this, the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky.
State Primary Election Saturday, August 7, 1920.

We are authorized to announce FRANK L. BIPY, of Anderson County, a Democratic candidate for Congress, in the Eighth district, subject to the action of the State primary, August 7, 1920.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democrats of Adair County are hereby notified to meet in the Court-House, in mass Convention, Saturday, May 1, 1920, at 2 o'clock p. m. The object of the meeting will be to name delegates to attend a State Convention, to be held in Louisville Tuesday, May 4, to select delegates to attend the National Convention, to be held in San Francisco, June 28, to nominate a candidate for the Presidency.

T. E. Jeffries, C. A. C. C.

The Democratic State Convention, to select delegates to attend the National Convention, will be held in Louisville on Tuesday, May 4. The county conventions to select delegates to the State convention will be held in the county seats, Saturday, May 1st.

Now that the Legislature has adjourned, will some man please tell us the number of offices that were abolished? The duties of the fire Marshal were turned over to another officer, and there will be no let up on "Fire Put-ters Out."

In all probability there will be but two Democrats who will seek the nomination for Congress in the Eighth District—Judge Ralph Gilbert, of Shelby County, and Col. Frank L. Ripy, of Anderson County, both of whom have announced in the Democratic papers of the district.
They are now going over the territory, getting acquainted with the voters, and a little later will fill some speaking appointments.
They are both gentlemen of high character, and the campaign will be pitched in an honorable and gentlemanly manner.
They are personal friends, and the one who is defeated will cheerfully support the winner.
They are both lawyers, doing a fine practice each in their respective judicial districts. The Congressional district is Democratic, and either one of the two gentlemen named can defeat Mr. Swope seems to be the general opinion, among Democrats.

When the war of the rebellion broke out Mattie Maupin was 7 years old, and she lived in Madison county. Her cousin, E. F.
Haley, lived in Garrard county, and he went over to Mattie's home, kissed her good-bye and left for the Confederate army.
That was fifty-eight years ago.
When Mattie grew to womanhood, she married Joseph Bales, a former sheriff of Madison county. After his death Mrs. Bales went to Lexington to live. A few days ago there was a knock at her door, and an old man entered, having come from the Confederate Home. A little talk, recollections of the past brought up, and in a very short time the couple will be married.
Mr. Haley is 74 and his intended is 65. She says she is perfectly willing to take care of her old cousin.

Senator Newberry, Republican Senator from Michigan, has been convicted of having conspired criminally in 1918 to violate the election laws. He goes to the penitentiary for two years and is fined $10,000. Quite a number of others who engaged in the same business, were also convicted. A blind man can see how he reached the Senate.

Every Democrat, every Independent and every Republican should read Homer S. Cummings speech, delivered in Louisville last Thursday and published in the daily papers.

Mr. E. C. Walton, editor of the Stanford Journal has been doubly grieved in the last three weeks. His two older brothers, Col. W. P. Walton, of Lexington, and Mr. Thos. R. Walton, of Atlanta, Georgia, have paid the debt due from all living. It was a heartrending trial for the brother who is left, who was the youngest of the three, the departed brothers having been his counsellors, and whom he dearly loved. May God comfort him in his sad and distressing hours, is the wish of his newspaper friends.

More than 6,000 students from twenty-two colleges throughout the United States have been ordered to report at Camp Knox for summer maneuvers. They are to be there the 17th of June and will remain until the 28th of July. These students are members of the senior units of the Officers' Training Corps. Camp Knox has received orders to have everything in readiness for their reception.

Mr. Bryan is laying his plans to either be nominated for the Presidency at San Francisco or to name the man who will be nominated. When it comes to convention work, all participants have to hand it to Mr. Bryan.
The News wants to see some one other than the Nebraskan nominated, but if it fails to get its choice it will take the Convention's choice.

Under the new school law the superintendent is forced to levy a 25 cent tax for salaries alone.
Following this he will have to levy a tax that will bring a sufficient fund for extras due teachers and for other general expenses, in the way of building, painting, and repairing, etc, which will require an additional 25 cents which reaches the limit.

There seems to be an understanding that Hon. Ben Johnson will be renominated for Congress in the Fourth district.
He is a winner if he starts.

The German outlaws are fighting among themselves, but they are not killing one another fast enough.

Editor News:—

Will drop a few lines to the News, as it is the home paper.
We sure enjoy the paper from the home county. It is beginning to warm up here and the snow is not to be seen any more.
It won't be long until we will be in the fields again, and the first thing is sowing oats. Grain is not selling very good here. Corn is $1.35 and oats 75 cents a bu.
Hard men are scarce here.
Wages are from $75 to $80 per month for a single man, and in some few places married men get some more than a single man and some extras furnished.
A girl can get from $9 to $12 a The weather has been cold until March and since then the wind has been blowing every day.

There isn't very much flu here but some few have smallpox.
There are quite a few Kentucky men farming here. It takes about six thousand dollars to start to farm, three and twenty acres at the best, and three men to run it. If this letter is not thrown in the waste basket, I will write again.

GOOD HEALTH NECESSARY FOR SUCCESS.

Conspicuous Success Requires Tireless Energy, "Bulldog" Tenacity, Vigorousness.

RED-BLOODED MEN IN DEMAND

Each Year Pepto-Mangan Restores Thousands to the Red-blooded Class.

Modern business can't wait for the easily-exhausted, nervous, weak-bodied man or woman. Every executive is on the constant lookout for enthusiastic, vigorous, red-blood individuals, for he knows that with a strong body and a keen mind, such employees can easily stand the strain of heavy responsibilities, quickly master their work and develop into important positions.

After all, being "live," energetic, and full-blooded is just a matter of whether or not a man or woman believes a healthy physical condition worth while, for unless you are afflicted with some deep-seated ailment, the intelligent use of Gude's Pepto-Mangan is all that is usually necessary.

Gude's Pepto Mangan soon produces marked beneficial results. The tired, worn-out, run-down feeling disappears.
And in its stead a vigorous wholesomeness and happiness proves that the blood has been supplied with the sorely needed richness to supply the entire system with renewed strength.

When you buy Pepto-Mangan at your druggist's, be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. You can get it in either liquid or tablet form. If the name "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.

When a community is short of food because of severe weather and lack of transportation, there is but one thought—to get it quickly. Urbana, Ohio, recently suffered a scarcity of meat and when motor trucks equipped with solid tires and chains were sent to the Westville station to unload many carloads of hogs—they were stalled by heavy snow and icy roads. No progress could be made. At this juncture, E. T.
Taylor, a proprietor of the Mad River Stock Farm, was called in with his pneumatically equipped truck. Even without chains, his Goodyear all-weather tread gave ample traction so that he unloaded the hogs for Urbanian consumption without any trouble

THAT GIFT TO YOUR CHURCH!

Hundreds of Presbyterians—and others too—when they made out their income tax return were surprised. The amount they had given to church and benevolences during the past year was smaller than they had expected.
Some of them had determined that they ought to approach as nearly as possible to giving one-tenth to the Lord's work, and are making extra gifts now.

The books of the mission boards of the Presbyterian Church close March 31. All money pledged through your Presbyterian Church to the general work of the denomination ought to be paid at once.

Your church treasurer should be able to send before the last week of March all the cash promised from your church.

Take an extra offering to church Sunday—and invite your neighbor to go along if he doesn't worship anywhere.
Be ready to make a generous pledge for next year when the time comes.

Give proportionately! Give consecrated dollars!

Any Presbyterian pastor will furnish details.

COUNTS HEALTH AS PRICELESS
AFTER RELIEF

I'm Feeling as Good Today as I Ever Did," Says Mrs. Spalding Gratefully.

Louisville, Ky, Mch. 23.—If I had the last bottle of Trutona in the world $1,000 wouldn't buy it," is the remarkable statement made by Mr. Peter Spalding of 3004 West Walnut Street, not long ago. Mr. Spalding is one of the many people who believe there are lots of things in this world that money can't buy and that good health is one of them.

"For some time I had been suffering from chills and kidney trouble," Mr. Spalding's story runs. "My kidneys simply would not act regularly and I suffered considerably from back-ache. I think, that I had a slight rheumatic trouble too, because my knees would get stiff and hurt me in damp weather.

"The other night I came home with the hardest chill I ever had in my life, and the worst one that I ever saw anybody suffer. I thought sure I was a 'gonner.' Well, my wife had been taking Trutona and as first aid she gave me a dose of it, then put me to bed and covered me up. You may not believe it but in two hours I was up and walking around. Since then I have been taking Trutona regularly and my kidneys are acting properly now. I'm feeling as good today as I ever did."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Columbia at the Paull Drug Company. Adv.

The Year 1920 Will Be One Fraught With Momentous Making of History.

In the libraries of the future, the historical volumes, marked 1920, will deal with a critical period of the world's history.

The whole world is now in a frenzy of discontent. In the old world new parties with new policies, each striving for control, are walking hand in hand with the spectre of distrust, where they are not already dying in the flame of fratricidal war.

In the United States profiteering has become a science, all sense of values is gone. Bolshevism is raising its vicious head, and labor and capital, by passing the buck, each to the other, are leaving the middle class bearing the brunt of the burden.

It is a critical period through which this world is passing, and one that demands the whole-souled interest of every thinking man and woman in this world.

You can not perform your duties as a citizen of this country unless you think right; you can not think right unless you are fully informed; you can not be fully informed unless you read a daily newspaper.

As a citizen, and as a voter, you wish to vote intelligently. You wish to know what the leaders of the big political parties are offering as the panacea for this present condition. In order to perform this duty intelligently, you must have access to the news as it is published day by day.

Granted that it is your duty to read a daily newspaper, it is also your duty to read the paper that will give you the most news, particularly when its cost is the same as the others.

The Louisville Herald has the largest circulation of any morning newspaper in Kentucky, and all Louisville newspapers are sold at the same price, this is self-evident proof that it is considered the best paper by the most people.

The Louisville Herald gives you the news from the Associated Press, that wonderful news gathering organization, which covers the entire world with its list of correspondents; in addition it gives you all the news from Europe that is gathered by the Universal News Service; this in addition to The Herald's own list of special correspondents and its editorial staff. No newspaper can give you more than this—few can give you as much.

The Louisville Herald, apart from its general news value, thoroughly covers the financial world, and keeps you fully informed as to the daily fluctuations on all marketable commodities. News of the world of sports is more than a tabulation of sporting events, as compiled for The Herald's sport page.

The Louisville Herald contains more features of general family interest than we have space to specify in the short space of this advertisement; but we will say this much, that there is something of interest to every member of your family in every issue. We will, if you are unfamiliar with The Herald, gladly send you a sample copy on request. We would suggest that in order to protect yourself against a raise in subscription price for the coming year, that you give your order to your local agent now; if there is none in your town, send in the coupon below.

TRAFFIC INCREASE TREBLED SINCE 1898

Greater Efficiency Enabled Railroads to Meet Country's Growing Demands.

The American railroads are more than one-third of the railways of the world. The traffic hauled on the railways of the United States is now three times as great as it was twenty years ago. In four months now the railroads carry as much freight and as many passengers as they did then in a year.
In the three months alone of the harvest movement in 1919 the traffic equaled that of the whole year of 1898.

In 1898 freight ton miles carried by the railroads of the country were more than 100,000,000,000 a year. In 1910 they were more than 250,000,000,000, in 1913 more than 300,000,000,000 and in 1918 more than 400,000,000,000. Although the railway mileage increased only about 65 per cent since 1890, improvements in tracks, terminals, equipment, etc., have been so marked that the volume of goods carried (measured in the number of freight tons carried one mile) increased more than five times from 1890 to 1917.

Increased Efficiency.

Taking account of both freight and passenger service, the railroads in 1900 hauled 186,000 traffic units (freight tons carried one mile, plus passengers carried one mile) for each railway employee. By 1917, the last year of private operation of the railroads prior to the entry of the United States into the war, that 186,000 had been increased to 293,000.

The following table shows the increase in efficiency of American railroads since 1900, which enabled the railroads to keep pace with the growth of the country:

Ton miles increased.....	190%
Passenger miles increased..	170%
Trackage increased.....	56%
Cars and engine increased..	75%
Workers increased.....	85%
Output per worker increased	60%
Average train load increased	130%

These figures show that the traffic hauled by the railroads of the country has increased more than three times as fast as the trackage, more than twice as fast as the equipment and more than twice as fast as the number of workers. This has been made possible by far-sighted investment of new capital to increase the efficiency of the transportation facilities and thereby enable the railroads to increase the amount of traffic handled and reduce the amount of labor required to handle it.

At the experiment station of Kentucky University, four hens laid 870 eggs in a year. The actual cost of their keep was $12 with eggs at 75 cents a dozen this is a pretty good profit.

What Think Ye.

(By Rev. C. L. Wireman, Evangelist.)

Much as I might have said in the past on the subject which I am about to write, I can not refrain from saying more about this greatest of all menaces to social purity, namely, the awful wave of immorality that is engulfing our country in the white slave entanglements for our boys, due in no small degree to the degraded and disgraceful mode of dress so prevalent among our women—she whom men dare the arctic and to whom America makes obeisance, as the "Queen of Creation" has already lowered the standard of morals and continues to drag her bright symbol of truth and beauty into the cesspools of impurity and shame!

Her "shimmering lustre and snowy whiteness," how sadly stained and how woefully besmirched! She to whom all earth has looked for a standard to redeem and upbuild a lost world!

Oh, how is she realizing and fulfilling our expectations and our hopes!

There is nothing in this country today that gives more convincing proof of the depravity of the human heart, or that is doing more to arouse the 'lowest lusts and impulses in man than the startling, horrifying, im-modest manner in which these "butterflies" of would-be society array themselves.

They have never known for the most part how to wash dishes or sweep—"they toil not, neither do they spin," yet I am persuaded that Mother Eve, with her "palm leaf," was better arrayed than they.

It is said that some of the leading merchants of the East have been known to pay women in Paris $25,000 a year to exploit the fashions for our American women to pattern after. What does this mean? It means that such American women are simply PARISITES, poor, little parasites.

When the "hobble skirt" first made its appearance it was a puzzle, but it wasn't long until we could see through it and now we can almost understand it.

When I first began to preach I asked the women "to dress up," but today I plead with them to "dress up and down," and the "peek-a-boo" waists they used to wear have all been left off, except the "boo."

Wherever our young men and boys go, whether on streets or in business places, in our homes or to church, they find this daring immodesty.

When a girl or woman professes the religion of Jesus Christ and at the same time wears a sleeveless, collarless or bottomless dress, she is either a hypocrite, that ought to be turned out of the church, or a poor ig-noramus, who is more to be pitied than censured.

A good remedy for our mothers to apply is to play "home sweet home" on the "southwestern extremity" until they wish they had on more clothes!

This modern fad of immodesty is working wonders in sowing seed from which will be reaped a harvest of human woe! and is digging the foundation from beneath both church and State and is fast turning the world into God-forgetting human animals —living in grossest sin!

There is little hope of reaching them; they are joined to their idols and will get mad if the preacher touches their little god, and claim to be innocent, but absolutely refuse to put on clothes.

They are traveling a broad road at a rapid rate, which will end in hell.

But we as preachers must cry aloud and spare not on this subject in order to clean our hands and clear our skirts at the judgment, where we will stand before the blazing bar of justice and render an impartial account to God for our stewardship here.

Every preacher, regardless of his church affiliation; every decent father and mother, every Christian man and woman, ought to privately and publicly protest against this awful menace to society until every young and old woman who has enough intelligence left to flush her cheeks with a blush of modesty is awakened to their shame and exceeding sin and folly and cry to the Lord, Who will have mercy, and to our God, Who will abundantly pardon. And so mote it be.

Obituary.

Mary Lucy Wheat, daughter of Sidney and Dicy Helm, (deceased) was born in Adair county Ky., Feb. 10, 1853, departed this life March 4, 1920, aged 67 years, 24 days. She was a member of the Methodist church and lived a faithful consistent christian life. In the year 1877 she was united in marriage to Dr. W.
D. Wheat, who died Feb. 17, 1890.

To this union was born one daughter, Annie, now Mrs.
Lawrence Wilkinson.

Mary Lucy was the oldest of five children. Her two sisters Nannie and Jennie preceded her to the great beyond. She leaves two brothers, Dr. W. B. Helm, of Greensburg, Ky., and J. S.
Helm, of Glenville, with whom she made her home. She had been unwell for several years but with beautiful courage she kept her self the same cheerful, loving friend, sister and mother she had always been and when her daughters' family took the flu she went to help care for them.
Very soon she was stricken with the same disease and lived only a few days.

After a short service at the home of her daughter, the remains were laid away in the family cemetery to await the Resurrection morn. Besides her daughter and brothers she leaves a host of relatives and friends who mourn her loss. Among them am I who was privileged to know her in life.

—a friend with stimulating ideas on national much respect, for instance, as that received by the editorial page of the Louisville Courier-Journal:

—a friend who would meet you early in the day and tell you in a concise, authoritative way about every important world event during the preceding twenty-four hours, quoting what the New York Times was printing the same morning, what the reliable Associated Press was saying about politics, strikes, or the High Cost of Living; giving you news which he had received by wire the night before from correspondents all over Kentucky, Indiana, and Tennessee; —a friend who would sit down while you were eating your cereal and draw a cartoon which would make you think, and then some pictures that would make you laugh;

—a friend versatile enough to give your wife just what she wants to know about cooking, shopping and fashions, then entertain the children every day with a forest animal story.

—a friend who is not obtrusive, but who stands ready, any moment during the day to answer your questions about racing, boxing or any other sport—and the next minute "tip you off," if you want him to, on the way stocks are selling on the metropolitan markets.

Ships To Remain American.

The German merchants ships captured by the U. S. during the war will be sold to Americans, only, is the advice received from Judge John Barton Payne, Chairman of the United States Shipping Board. Why the ships were sold for two-thirds of their present day value was explained by Judge Payne, who said that it would require an expenditure of $57,000,000 to make only 20 of them over into passenger ships, and that the Shipping Board could not profitably operate passenger ships.

Sold by Paul Drug Company.

The distribution of the offices is beginning to give the g. o. p. much trouble at Frankfort. As Gov. Bradley was wont to say he had a great many more pegs than holes and that among the faithful was the hardest and most thankless job he ever attempted.

Spats attached to rubber soles may appeal to those who do not hanker for the high prices of shoes.

There was talk of Cincinnati selling the Southern railroad, having been offered about sixty millions for it. The rentals amount to $1,800,000 yearly, but that is poor return for an investment that can be sold for such a large sum. The Cincinnati Southern has the unique distinction of being the only municipally owned road in the United States.

John Burket Tiller.

At his home in Douglas, Neb., in the early morning of March 10, 1920, John Burket Tiller passed from the suffering of earth to the rest beyond.

He was born Sept. 16, 1852, in Russell county, Ky., and at the time of his passing had reached the age of 67 years, 5 months and 23 days.

His childhood and early manhood were spent in the old family home in Kentucky, where he and his brothers and his sisters had the training of a faithful christian mother, his father, Edward Tiller, having passed away when the children were young in years.

On Aug. 25, 1878, he was married to Miss Amy Hadley, who was reared in a home near his own, and to both Mr. and Mrs. Tiller the memories of their old Kentucky home and friends have always been precious.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiller were the parents of three children, Hattie, at home, Mrs. Emily Smith, Manchester, Kan., and Ellen, who died in infancy.

The family moved from Kentucky to Missouri, in 1886, remaining there two years. The next move was to Hamburg, Ia., where they lived four years. In March, 1893, they moved to Douglas, Neb., which has been their home for twenty-seven years.

Mr. Tiller had been a farmer all his life and one of his greatest pleasures was to be out working among his crops.

No one ever endured suffering more patiently or made a braver fight for life than he did during his long illness, but all that could be done was of no avail except to give temporary relief. Geo. Smith, his son-in-law, rendered faithful service at his bedside for the last eight weeks, and did everything he could to relieve his suffering. A brother, E. G. Tiller, of Cal., visited him during his illness, as did all the brothers and sisters.

To family and friends Mr. Tiller often said that he was reconciled to God's will and was ready to go at any time God called him.

Mr. Tiller's oldest brother, Ezra, died in 1864, at the age of fourteen, and the second brother, Eberlee, who was a Baptist minister, passed to the Great Beyond, on Christmas Day, 1890.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, two daughters, three grandchildren, Malcolm, Dallas and Claris Smith. Also two brothers and two sisters, W. L. Tiller, of Pawnee City, Neb., E. G. Tiller, of Chowchilla, Cal., Mrs. O. H. Coffey, of Hamburg, Ia., and Mrs. Myra Ackerman, of Bethany, Neb. Also a number of nephews and nieces and many friends.

After a short prayer service at the home on Friday afternoon, funeral services were held at the Christian church, conducted by Rev. D. L. Hughes, former pastor of the church and one whom Mr. Tiller valued as a friend. The body was laid to rest in Rose Hill cemetery at Douglas.

Relatives and friends from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Smith and family, Manchester, Kan., W. L. Tiller, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Tiller, Pawnee City, Neb., Mrs. O. H. Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coffey, Mrs. Victor Catlett and Glenn Coffey, of Hamburg, Ia., Mrs. Myra Ackerman and Claud Ackerman, of Bethany, Neb., Waller P. Lair, a cousin, of Horton, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Higginbottom, of Bennet, Neb., W. J. McGinley and J. A. Harlan, of Lincoln, Neb.

A YEAR'S ABUSE IN 7 DAYS

ALL LIGHT CAR ROAD
RECORDS SMASHED

At Indianapolis last week one of the new Overland 4 stock cars was driven 5,452 miles continuously in seven days and nights, over frozen country roads---and finished ready to do it again.

This is an average of 772 miles per day; more than the distance between Toledo and New York City covered each day. This is another tribute to the cushioning effect of TRIPLEX SPRINGS and the quality of material in Overland 4.

A piece of chalk in the hands of some of our village youngsters seems to do more to deface and mar our little city than a whole herd of cattle. About every so often they are possessed with this fearful craze of marking up the sidewalks and buildings. Every way you turn you see sketches of wierd structures supposed to be houses and just as wierd creatures who are presumably meant to inhabit the wierd houses. Then your eye is greeted by the startling announcement that "Johnnie kissed Mary."

Sometimes, too, you see the written command to go to a very warm place. At first this trick of the children is amusing, but it soon grows tiresome, and it is certainly destructive to order and beauty. If the children were taught to have civic pride in their home town they wouldn't want to mar it up so and no child is too young to learn and understand the essentials of a good citizen.—Lebanon Enterprise.
